

Who was the prophet who delivered the prophecy against Samaria and Jerusalem in

- A. Jeremiah
- B. Micah
- C. Ezekiel
- D. Isaiah

Answer: B. Micah

What were the specific sins that Micah prophesied against in Samaria and Jerusalem

- A. greed and jealousy
- B. idolatry and corruption
- C. violence and hatred
- D. dishonesty and laziness

Answer: B. idolatry and corruption

In Micah's prophecy, what was the consequence for the sins of Samaria and Jerusalem

- A. prosperity and peace
- B. destruction and exile
- C. victory and triumph
- D. forgiveness and restoration

Answer: B. destruction and exile

What was the primary message that Micah was delivering to the people of Samaria and

- A. Seek revenge on your enemies

- B. Ignore the prophecy and continue sinning
- C. Blame others for your problems
- D. Repent and turn back to God

Answer: D. Repent and turn back to God

How did the people of Samaria and Jerusalem respond to Micah's prophecy?

- A. They sought guidance on how to repent
- B. They immediately repented and changed their ways
- C. They mocked and persecuted the prophet
- D. They ignored it and continued in their sins

Answer: D. They ignored it and continued in their sins

What was the significance of Micah's prophecy against Samaria and Jerusalem in the Bible?

- A. It predicted the rise of a new king in Israel
- B. It promised a time of peace and prosperity for the people
- C. It foreshadowed the fall of these cities and the ultimate judgment of God
- D. It foretold the rebuilding of the temple in Jerusalem

Answer: C. It foreshadowed the fall of these cities and the ultimate judgment of God

What specific imagery did Micah use in his prophecy to illustrate the destruction of Samaria and Jerusalem?

- A. Skies darkening and stars falling
- B. Mountains melting like wax and valleys splitting apart
- C. Cities flourishing and people rejoicing
- D. Rivers overflowing and fields blooming

Answer: B. Mountains melting like wax and valleys splitting apart

What role did the rulers and leaders of Samaria and Jerusalem play in the sins that led to the fall of the kingdom?

- A. They were corrupt and led the people astray
- B. They were powerless to stop the sins
- C. They were unaware of the sins being committed
- D. They were righteous and tried to prevent the sins

Answer: A. They were corrupt and led the people astray

How did Micah convey the urgency and seriousness of his prophecy against Samaria and Judah?

- A. By offering rewards for repentance
- B. By focusing on minor sins rather than major ones
- C. By using strong language and vivid imagery
- D. By downplaying the consequences of sin

Answer: C. By using strong language and vivid imagery

What ultimately happened to Samaria and Jerusalem as a result of Micah's prophecy?

- A. They were destroyed and faced exile
- B. They conquered their enemies and expanded their territories
- C. They experienced a revival and prosperity
- D. They were spared from judgment

Answer: A. They were destroyed and faced exile

