

Who is being addressed in Micah 2:1-2:13?

- A. Israel's leaders
- B. Prophets of other nations
- C. Roman soldiers
- D. Babylonian rulers

What is the main reason for the judgment against Israel's leaders in Micah 2:1-2:13?

- A. Neglecting to offer sacrifices
- B. Building extravagant temples
- C. Not following ceremonial laws
- D. Oppressing the poor

What is the tone of Micah's message towards Israel's leaders in this passage?

- A. Neutral and indifferent
- B. Harsh and condemning
- C. Encouraging and uplifting
- D. Sympathetic and understanding

How does Micah describe the future restoration of Israel in contrast to the current judgment?

- A. God will gather His remnant and lead them to safety
- B. Israel will be conquered by a foreign army
- C. The people will be enslaved for generations
- D. There will be famine and drought in the land

What specific actions does Micah accuse Israel's leaders of committing in Micah 2:1-2:13?

- A. Establishing fair trade policies

- B. Supporting the poor and needy
- C. Plundering homes and fields
- D. Building strong fortresses

How does Micah describe the consequences of Israel's leaders' actions in Micah 2:1-

- A. They will be given positions of greater authority
- B. They will be blessed with abundant wealth
- C. They will be praised and honored
- D. They will be stripped of their inheritance

What role does Micah see God playing in the judgment against Israel's leaders?

- A. He is siding with the oppressors
- B. He is powerless to intervene
- C. He is the one executing justice
- D. He is indifferent to their actions

What response does Micah call for from the people in light of the judgment against the

- A. They are to ignore the situation
- B. They are to mourn and lament
- C. They are to flee the country
- D. They are to celebrate and rejoice

What does Micah emphasize as the ultimate source of authority in the passage?

- A. The influence of foreign gods
- B. God's sovereignty and righteousness
- C. The wisdom of human leaders
- D. The power of military might

How does Micah describe the eventual outcome for Israel despite the current judgment?

- A. The people will be scattered across the earth
- B. God will restore and redeem His people
- C. Israel will be abandoned and destroyed
- D. The nation will be divided into smaller kingdoms

PlayBibleQuiz.com