

According to Micah 5:2, where is the Messiah prophesied to be born?

- A. Jerusalem
- B. Bethlehem
- C. Nazareth
- D. Capernaum

Answer: B. Bethlehem

What is the title given to the ruler that is prophesied to come from Bethlehem in Micah 5:2?

- A. Ruler of Israel
- B. Prince of Egypt
- C. King of Judah
- D. Emperor of Rome

Answer: A. Ruler of Israel

In Micah 5:3, how long will the Messiah's people be given over until the time of his birth?

- A. Until the end of the world
- B. For a hundred years
- C. Until the next generation
- D. Until the time she who is in labor gives birth

Answer: D. Until the time she who is in labor gives birth

According to Micah 5:4, what will the Messiah do when he stands and shepherds his people?

- A. He will be their king

- B. He will be their judge
- C. He will be their conqueror
- D. He will be their peace

Answer: D. He will be their peace

What is the significance of the location of Bethlehem in the prophecy of the Messiah?

- A. It was a common birthplace for many rulers
- B. It was a random choice by the prophet
- C. It fulfills the prophecy of the Messiah's birthplace
- D. It had no special meaning

Answer: C. It fulfills the prophecy of the Messiah's birthplace

What role does the city of Bethlehem play in the overall plan of God for salvation?

- A. It is the birthplace of the Savior
- B. It is a city with no connection to prophecy
- C. It is a place of historical importance
- D. It is a city of no significance

Answer: A. It is the birthplace of the Savior

How does the prophecy in Micah 5:2 point to the divinity of the Messiah?

- A. It suggests his human origin
- B. It foretells his eternal existence
- C. It implies his earthly ancestry
- D. It indicates his mortal nature

Answer: B. It foretells his eternal existence

What does the prophecy in Micah 5:5 reveal about the Messiah's reign and authority?

- A. He will be limited to a small region
- B. He will be a local ruler
- C. He will be insignificant in the world
- D. He will be great to the ends of the earth

Answer: D. He will be great to the ends of the earth

What is the symbolic significance of the mention of Bethlehem in the prophecy of the Messiah?

- A. It symbolizes a place of power and influence
- B. It signifies a royal lineage
- C. It represents the humble beginning of the Savior
- D. It holds no symbolic meaning

Answer: C. It represents the humble beginning of the Savior

How does the prophecy in Micah 5:15 emphasize the role of the Messiah in delivering his people?

- A. He will rule with an iron fist
- B. He will deliver them from all their enemies
- C. He will establish a new kingdom
- D. He will lead them into battle

Answer: B. He will deliver them from all their enemies

