

What city does Nahum predict will fall?

- A. Jerusalem
- B. Damascus
- C. Babylon
- D. Nineveh

Answer: D. Nineveh

Who is the prophet that predicts the fall of Nineveh?

- A. Isaiah
- B. Nahum
- C. Jonah
- D. Ezekiel

Answer: B. Nahum

What does Nahum describe as the source of Nineveh's downfall?

- A. Economic collapse
- B. The Lord's wrath
- C. Internal rebellion
- D. Foreign invasion

Answer: B. The Lord's wrath

What specific sin does Nahum accuse Nineveh of committing?

- A. Violence

- B. Pride
- C. Greed
- D. Idolatry

Answer: A. Violence

How does Nahum describe the destruction that will come upon Nineveh?

- A. Predictable and avoidable
- B. Gradual and partial
- C. Sudden and complete
- D. Temporary and reversible

Answer: C. Sudden and complete

What is the reaction of the nations to Nineveh's fall according to Nahum?

- A. Indifference and apathy
- B. Rejoicing and relief
- C. Fear and mourning
- D. Sympathy and support

Answer: B. Rejoicing and relief

What imagery does Nahum use to describe the destruction of Nineveh?

- A. A natural disaster
- B. A mighty army
- C. A divine flood
- D. A consuming fire

Answer: D. A consuming fire

What is the tone of Nahum's prophecy regarding Nineveh?

- A. Hopeful redemption
- B. Merciful forgiveness
- C. Neutral observation
- D. Harsh judgment

Answer: D. Harsh judgment

How does Nahum contrast the fate of Nineveh with that of Judah?

- A. Judah will fall alongside Nineveh
- B. Nineveh will be destroyed while Judah will be spared
- C. Both Nineveh and Judah will be saved
- D. Judah will suffer a worse fate than Nineveh

Answer: B. Nineveh will be destroyed while Judah will be spared

What message does Nahum ultimately convey through his prophecy?

- A. Violence and cruelty will always triumph
- B. The Lord is a stronghold in times of trouble
- C. Divine justice is arbitrary and capricious
- D. God is powerless against human wickedness

Answer: B. The Lord is a stronghold in times of trouble

