

What does Paul praise Philemon for?

- A. knowledge and wisdom
- B. power and influence
- C. wealth and status
- D. love and faith

Answer: D. love and faith

In which book of the Bible can we find Paul praising Philemon?

- A. Philemon
- B. Romans
- C. 1 Corinthians
- D. Galatians

Answer: A. Philemon

What qualities does Paul highlight in Philemon?

- A. hatred and disbelief
- B. selfishness and dishonesty
- C. fear and doubt
- D. love and faith

Answer: D. love and faith

According to Paul, what is Philemon known for?

- A. ignorance and foolishness

- B. anger and hostility
- C. love and faith
- D. greed and deception

Answer: C. love and faith

What does Paul commend Philemon for?

- A. pride and arrogance
- B. love and faith
- C. envy and jealousy
- D. apathy and indifference

Answer: B. love and faith

Which two virtues does Paul specifically mention in relation to Philemon?

- A. hate and doubt
- B. love and faith
- C. fear and disbelief
- D. selfishness and dishonesty

Answer: B. love and faith

What aspects of Philemon's character does Paul highlight?

- A. suspicion and mistrust
- B. love and faith
- C. deceit and betrayal
- D. cruelty and malice

Answer: B. love and faith

According to Paul, what sets Philemon apart?

- A. anger and hostility
- B. greed and selfishness
- C. indifference and apathy
- D. love and faith

Answer: D. love and faith

What does Paul commend Philemon for demonstrating?

- A. selfishness and dishonesty
- B. fear and disbelief
- C. hate and doubt
- D. love and faith

Answer: D. love and faith

Which two characteristics does Paul emphasize in his praise of Philemon?

- A. love and faith
- B. anger and hostility
- C. fear and doubt
- D. selfishness and dishonesty

Answer: A. love and faith

