

What did Paul's imprisonment lead to?

- A. The failure of his ministry
- B. His release from prison
- C. His abandonment by the Philippians
- D. The advancement of the gospel

Answer: D. The advancement of the gospel

What motivated some to preach Christ out of envy and rivalry?

- A. Love for God
- B. Selfish ambition
- C. Desire for unity
- D. Selflessness

Answer: B. Selfish ambition

According to Paul, what is more important than his own life?

- A. His personal comfort
- B. The opinion of others
- C. His release from prison
- D. Christ being proclaimed

Answer: D. Christ being proclaimed

What does Paul believe will result from the Philippians' prayers and the help of the S

- A. His deliverance

- B. His condemnation
- C. His defeat
- D. His suffering

Answer: A. His deliverance

What does Paul say is the purpose of his life?

- A. To live in Christ
- B. To seek personal glory
- C. To gain earthly riches
- D. To avoid suffering

Answer: A. To live in Christ

Who was causing trouble for Paul while he was in prison?

- A. The other prisoners
- B. Some were preaching out of selfish ambition
- C. The Philippians
- D. The Roman authorities

Answer: B. Some were preaching out of selfish ambition

What did Paul say was the result of his imprisonment for the brothers in Christ?

- A. Increased confidence and boldness in preaching the gospel
- B. Isolation and despair
- C. Persecution and suffering
- D. Fear and doubt

Answer: A. Increased confidence and boldness in preaching the gospel

What did Paul hope would happen as a result of his circumstances?

- A. His release from prison
- B. His deliverance through their prayers and the help of the Spirit
- C. His death in prison
- D. His abandonment by the Philippians

Answer: B. His deliverance through their prayers and the help of the Spirit

What did Paul say was the most important thing for him?

- A. His personal reputation
- B. Christ being proclaimed
- C. His own comfort
- D. His release from prison

Answer: B. Christ being proclaimed

What did Paul say was the purpose of his life, regardless of his circumstances?

- A. To seek personal gain
- B. To gain worldly success
- C. To avoid suffering
- D. To magnify Christ in life or in death

Answer: D. To magnify Christ in life or in death

