

According to Philippians 4:1, what does Paul urge the Philippians to stand firm in?

- A. their own strength
- B. the Lord
- C. their wealth
- D. their popularity

Answer: B. the Lord

In Philippians 4:2, who does Paul urge to agree in the Lord?

- A. James and Andrew
- B. Euodia and Syntyche
- C. Timothy and Titus
- D. Peter and John

Answer: B. Euodia and Syntyche

According to Philippians 4:4, believers are encouraged to rejoice in the Lord _____

- A. always
- B. sometimes
- C. never
- D. rarely

Answer: A. always

What does Philippians 4:6 instruct believers to do instead of being anxious?

- A. complain

- B. pray
- C. ignore
- D. worry

Answer: B. pray

According to Philippians 4:7, what will guard believers' hearts and minds in Christ Jesus?

- A. negative thoughts
- B. selfish desires
- C. worldly possessions
- D. the peace of God

Answer: D. the peace of God

In Philippians 4:8, believers are told to think about things that are true, noble, right, pure, lovely, admirable, excellent, and praiseworthy.

- A. admirable
- B. doubtful
- C. controversial
- D. questionable

Answer: A. admirable

Philippians 4:9 instructs believers to put into practice what they have learned, received, and heard from Paul and the other apostles.

- A. overheard
- B. imagined
- C. seen in Paul
- D. dreamed about

Answer: C. seen in Paul

What is the ultimate source of strength and perseverance for believers, as mentioned in Philippians 4:13?

- A. money
- B. Christ
- C. themselves
- D. fame

Answer: B. Christ

How does Philippians 4:4 encourage believers to treat others?

- A. with harshness
- B. with gentleness
- C. with indifference
- D. with arrogance

Answer: B. with gentleness

According to Philippians 4:6, what should believers present to God in every situation?

- A. excuses
- B. demands
- C. prayer and petition
- D. complaints

Answer: C. prayer and petition

