

What does Proverbs 15:1 advise to turn away wrath?

- A. A gentle answer
- B. Ignoring the situation
- C. Arguing back
- D. A harsh response

Answer: A. A gentle answer

According to Proverbs 15:1, what type of response can defuse anger?

- A. A disrespectful reply
- B. A soft answer
- C. An aggressive attitude
- D. A loud response

Answer: B. A soft answer

What is recommended in Proverbs 15:1 to avoid escalating a conflict?

- A. Yelling back
- B. Speaking gently
- C. Being defensive
- D. Insulting the other person

Answer: B. Speaking gently

How can one follow the advice of Proverbs 15:1 in a heated argument?

- A. Reacting aggressively

- B. Interrupting the other person
- C. Screaming back
- D. Responding softly

Answer: D. Responding softly

What is the suggested approach in Proverbs 15:1 to handle confrontations peacefully?

- A. Answering gently
- B. Provoking the other person
- C. Expressing anger
- D. Being confrontational

Answer: A. Answering gently

How can one apply the principle of Proverbs 15:1 in resolving conflicts effectively?

- A. Being defensive
- B. Attacking verbally
- C. Using a gentle response
- D. Reacting impulsively

Answer: C. Using a gentle response

What kind of attitude does Proverbs 15:1 encourage in difficult conversations?

- A. An arrogant behavior
- B. A gentle demeanor
- C. A dismissive attitude
- D. A hostile approach

Answer: B. A gentle demeanor

How does Proverbs 15:1 suggest dealing with anger in others?

- A. With a soft answer
- B. By escalating the conflict
- C. With a harsh retort
- D. By matching their intensity

Answer: A. With a soft answer

What approach does Proverbs 15:1 advocate for handling disagreements?

- A. Being defensive
- B. Reacting angrily
- C. Using sarcasm
- D. Responding gently

Answer: D. Responding gently

How can one demonstrate wisdom in conflicts according to Proverbs 15:1?

- A. By blaming the other person
- B. By raising their voice
- C. By answering softly
- D. By being stubborn

Answer: C. By answering softly

