

According to Romans 13:1, who is every person to be subject to?

- A. peers
- B. governing authorities
- C. religious leaders
- D. family members

Answer: B. governing authorities

What does Romans 13:2 say about resisting authority?

- A. resists what God has appointed
- B. is encouraged
- C. shows strength
- D. leads to success

Answer: A. resists what God has appointed

According to Romans 13:3, rulers are not a terror to what kind of conduct?

- A. rebellious conduct
- B. secret conduct
- C. criminal conduct
- D. good conduct

Answer: D. good conduct

What is the main purpose of paying taxes according to Romans 13:6-7?

- A. to evade authority

- B. to rebel
- C. to fulfill obligations
- D. to accumulate wealth

Answer: C. to fulfill obligations

How does Romans 13:10 summarize fulfilling the law?

- A. punishing enemies
- B. obeying blindly
- C. love does no harm to a neighbor
- D. serving self-interest

Answer: C. love does no harm to a neighbor

In Romans 13:11, what does Paul exhort believers to do?

- A. continue in ignorance
- B. wake from sleep
- C. live in darkness
- D. embrace laziness

Answer: B. wake from sleep

According to Romans 13:12, believers are to cast off the works of what?

- A. light
- B. darkness
- C. uncertainty
- D. joy

Answer: B. darkness

What does Romans 13:13 warn against indulging in?

- A. sobriety
- B. orgies and drunkenness
- C. integrity
- D. moderation

Answer: B. orgies and drunkenness

How does Romans 13:14 encourage believers to walk?

- A. embrace selfishness
- B. put on the Lord Jesus Christ
- C. pursue power
- D. follow worldly desires

Answer: B. put on the Lord Jesus Christ

What is the ultimate command given in Romans 13:14?

- A. prioritize personal desires
- B. make no provision for the flesh
- C. ignore spiritual growth
- D. indulge in worldly pleasures

Answer: B. make no provision for the flesh

