What is the title of Paul in Romans 1:1?

• A. A Roman soldier

• B. A Pharisee of Pharisees

• C. A disciple of John the Baptist

• D. A servant of Jesus Christ

Answer: D. A servant of Jesus Christ

Where was Paul called to be an apostle according to Romans 1:1?

• A. Set apart for the gospel of God

• B. To conquer new lands

• C. To start a business

• D. To become a king

Answer: A. Set apart for the gospel of God

What did Paul say about Jesus in Romans 1:3?

• A. He was a carpenter

• B. He was an angel

• C. He was descended from David

• D. He was a mythological figure

Answer: C. He was descended from David

According to Romans 1:4, what was Jesus declared to be?

• A. A prophet

- B. A regular man

- C. The Son of God

- D. A teacher

Answer: C. The Son of God

What did Paul say about the Gentiles in Romans 1:6?

- A. Not welcome in the church

- B. Destined for destruction

- C. Superior to the Jews

- D. Called to belong to Jesus Christ

Answer: D. Called to belong to Jesus Christ

Who did Paul address in Romans 1:7?

- A. His family members

- B. His enemies

- C. All those in Rome who are loved by God

- D. Only the Jews

Answer: C. All those in Rome who are loved by God

What did Paul wish for the Romans in Romans 1:7?

- A. Suffering and hardship

- B. Grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

- C. Wealth and prosperity

- D. War and destruction

Answer: B. Grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

What did Paul emphasize in Romans 1:1-7?

• A. The value of fame

• B. The importance of the gospel

• C. The power of money

• D. The pursuit of pleasure

Answer: B. The importance of the gospel

How did Paul describe his relationship to the Romans in Romans 1:1-7?

• A. He longed to see them

• B. He ignored them

• C. He despised them

• D. He feared them

Answer: A. He longed to see them

What did Paul express in Romans 1:7 towards the Romans?

• A. Love and appreciation

• B. Indifference and apathy

• C. Jealousy and envy

• D. Hatred and disdain

Answer: A. Love and appreciation