

What is described as the woman's teeth in Song of Solomon 4:2?

- A. a flock of sheep
- B. ivory towers
- C. lilies
- D. pearls

Answer: A. a flock of sheep

What is compared to the woman's neck in Song of Solomon 4:4?

- A. a shining star
- B. a flowing river
- C. a field of lilies
- D. the tower of David

Answer: D. the tower of David

What is likened to the woman's eyes in Song of Solomon 4:1?

- A. rubies
- B. sapphires
- C. emeralds
- D. doves

Answer: D. doves

What is compared to the woman's lips in Song of Solomon 4:3?

- A. a scarlet thread

- B. honeycomb
- C. a rosebud
- D. a smooth stone

Answer: A. a scarlet thread

What is described as the woman's hair in Song of Solomon 4:1?

- A. golden threads
- B. flowing rivers
- C. silken strands
- D. a flock of goats

Answer: D. a flock of goats

What is likened to the woman's cheeks in Song of Solomon 5:14?

- A. rivers of milk
- B. gardens of roses
- C. mountains of gold
- D. beds of spices

Answer: D. beds of spices

What is compared to the woman's hands in Song of Solomon 5:14?

- A. silk ribbons
- B. rings of gold
- C. pearl gloves
- D. ivory bracelets

Answer: B. rings of gold

What is described as the woman's legs in Song of Solomon 7:1?

- A. pillars of marble
- B. trees of cedar
- C. pillars of gold
- D. columns of ivory

Answer: A. pillars of marble

What is likened to the woman's voice in Song of Solomon 2:14?

- A. a babbling brook
- B. a roaring lion
- C. turtle doves
- D. thunder in the sky

Answer: C. turtle doves

What is compared to the woman's fragrance in Song of Solomon 1:3?

- A. ointments poured forth
- B. the morning dew
- C. a sweet perfume
- D. a field of flowers

Answer: A. ointments poured forth

