

Who should appoint elders according to Titus 1:5?

- A. The government
- B. The apostles
- C. Titus
- D. The congregation

Answer: C. Titus

What characteristics should elders have according to Titus 1:6-7?

- A. Young, inexperienced, unmarried
- B. Dishonest, unfaithful, disrespectful
- C. Wealthy, powerful, well-known
- D. Blameless, husband of one wife, children are believers

Answer: D. Blameless, husband of one wife, children are believers

Why is it important for elders to be blameless according to Titus 1:7?

- A. To control others
- B. To be popular among people
- C. To gain wealth and power
- D. To be a steward of God

Answer: D. To be a steward of God

How should elders handle those who oppose sound doctrine according to Titus 1:9?

- A. Agree with them

- B. Praise them
- C. Rebuke them sharply
- D. Ignore them

Answer: C. Rebuke them sharply

What is the main responsibility of elders in the church according to Titus 1:9?

- A. Gain personal glory
- B. Seek personal gain
- C. Hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught
- D. Enforce strict rules

Answer: C. Hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught

How should elders treat others in the church according to Titus 1:8?

- A. Exclusive, judgmental, selfish, corrupt
- B. Hospitable, lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, disciplined
- C. Rude, careless, impulsive, rebellious
- D. Unfriendly, lazy, dishonest, immoral

Answer: B. Hospitable, lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, disciplined

What is the purpose of appointing elders according to Titus 1:5?

- A. To put things in order
- B. To create chaos
- C. To gain power
- D. To control others

Answer: A. To put things in order

What should elders be able to do according to Titus 1:9?

- A. Avoid confrontation
- B. Give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it
- C. Stay silent and passive
- D. Follow blindly

Answer: B. Give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it

What should elders not be according to Titus 1:7?

- A. Humble, patient, sober, peaceful, content
- B. Arrogant, quick-tempered, drunkard, violent, greedy for gain
- C. Compassionate, forgiving, understanding, selfless
- D. Kind, loving, empathetic, generous

Answer: B. Arrogant, quick-tempered, drunkard, violent, greedy for gain

How should elders lead according to Titus 1:7?

- A. As God's steward
- B. As a servant
- C. As a tyrant
- D. As a dictator

Answer: A. As God's steward

