

What should believers be ready to do according to Titus 3:1?

- A. ready to seek revenge
- B. ready to judge others
- C. ready to boast about their good deeds
- D. ready to do every good work

Answer: D. ready to do every good work

Why should believers be submissive to rulers and authorities according to Titus 3:1?

- A. to show off their obedience
- B. to be ready for every good work
- C. to incite rebellion
- D. to gain power and control

Answer: B. to be ready for every good work

What does Titus 3:2 instruct believers to avoid?

- A. kindness
- B. generosity
- C. slander
- D. forgiveness

Answer: C. slander

According to Titus 3:3, believers were once enslaved to what?

- A. humility and meekness

- B. prayer and fasting
- C. selfless acts of charity
- D. various passions and pleasures

Answer: D. various passions and pleasures

What does Titus 3:4-5 emphasize about God's kindness?

- A. He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness
- B. He ignores our actions
- C. He rewards us based on our good deeds
- D. He punishes us for our sins

Answer: A. He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness

What is the renewal of the Holy Spirit according to Titus 3:5?

- A. a form of self-improvement
- B. the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit
- C. a religious ceremony
- D. a cleansing ritual

Answer: B. the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit

What does Titus 3:8 encourage believers to devote themselves to?

- A. idle gossip
- B. good works
- C. material wealth
- D. selfish pursuits

Answer: B. good works

According to Titus 3:9, what should believers avoid getting entangled in?

- A. peaceful resolutions
- B. foolish controversies
- C. constructive debates
- D. meaningful discussions

Answer: B. foolish controversies

What does Titus 3:10 instruct regarding a person who stirs up division?

- A. have nothing more to do with him
- B. seek revenge against him
- C. tolerate his behavior
- D. reward him with praise

Answer: A. have nothing more to do with him

What is the overall message of Titus 3:11 regarding divisive individuals?

- A. They are warped and sinful; they are self-condemned
- B. They are misunderstood and need support
- C. They are victims of circumstance
- D. They are to be celebrated for their uniqueness

Answer: A. They are warped and sinful; they are self-condemned

