

Who is speaking to Zechariah in this vision?

- A. a prophet
- B. a king
- C. an angel
- D. a priest

Answer: C. an angel

What is the significance of the golden lampstand in the vision?

- A. signifies power and authority
- B. represents the sun god
- C. represents earthly riches
- D. symbolizes the light of God's presence

Answer: D. symbolizes the light of God's presence

What do the olive trees represent in the vision?

- A. the prophets of old
- B. the two anointed ones
- C. the kings of Israel
- D. the enemies of God

Answer: B. the two anointed ones

What is the message conveyed by the vision of the golden lampstand and olive trees

- A. God's favor is only for a select few

- B. God's Spirit empowers His people to fulfill His purposes
- C. material wealth leads to spiritual prosperity
- D. human effort alone can achieve greatness

Answer: B. God's Spirit empowers His people to fulfill His purposes

How does Zechariah react to the vision initially?

- A. confused and seeking understanding
- B. joyful and celebratory
- C. fearful and trembling
- D. indifferent and uninterested

Answer: A. confused and seeking understanding

What is the main theme emphasized in the vision of the golden lampstand and olive trees?

- A. God's sovereignty and provision
- B. human achievement and success
- C. spiritual warfare and conflict
- D. destruction and judgment

Answer: A. God's sovereignty and provision

What does the vision of the golden lampstand symbolize in relation to the people of God?

- A. their pursuit of personal glory and fame
- B. their desire for material wealth and comfort
- C. their dependence on worldly wisdom and strength
- D. their role as bearers of God's light to the world

Answer: D. their role as bearers of God's light to the world

What is the significance of the olive trees providing oil to the lampstand?

- A. signifies the need for human effort to sustain spirituality
- B. symbolizes the continuous flow of God's anointing and power
- C. represents the cycle of life and death
- D. represents the dependence on natural resources

Answer: B. symbolizes the continuous flow of God's anointing and power

How does the vision of the golden lampstand and olive trees encourage the people of Israel?

- A. to trust in human abilities and strategies
- B. to rely on God's Spirit for strength and guidance
- C. to seek worldly riches and success
- D. to focus on personal achievements and fame

Answer: B. to rely on God's Spirit for strength and guidance

What is the ultimate message of the vision of the golden lampstand and olive trees for the people of Israel?

- A. success is achieved through personal effort and ambition
- B. God's Spirit enables them to overcome obstacles and fulfill His purposes
- C. only a select few are chosen for divine empowerment
- D. material possessions are a sign of God's favor

Answer: B. God's Spirit enables them to overcome obstacles and fulfill His purposes

